

To Michael Powell: I urge you to retain current membership rules. I am absolutely opposed to taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation which would be an attack on our democratic principles. Rules should serve the public, not private, interest.